Pastor's Lines

Dear Church Family,

We spent time at Surfside Beach two weeks ago. Surfside is a laid back town with a beach and not much more. We rented a house (AND took the motorhome) and did beach things. We swam, cooked, hung out on the porch, slept, played games, and then repeated those activities for about 4 days. It was a glorious time.

And, oh, by the way, we spent time with our grandson Shaun. As many of you know, our grandson (and his parents) live in Phoenix. Thus, our time with him is limited to short, infrequent visits. Since we don't see him very often, (and he is only 18 months old) he takes a long time to warm up to us when we do visit. When he sees me he stares a hole through me with those innocent pure eyes, as he wraps his arms around his momma's leg. He looks at me as if to say, "I don't know about you?" "I am not sure you are safe?" I know, I know...it just takes time. I just wish I could tell him, and show him how much I love him....How proud I am of him, how special he is to me.....

I got to thinking about his hesitation to warm up to a father figure. I wonder, is that how God sees us from time to time? Do we stare at Him with inquisitive eyes, wondering if He is safe? Do we look at God in fear thinking "I don't know about you?" "I am not sure you are safe?". Does God look back at us, eager to let us know that he is proud of us, that He loves us deeply, He wants the best for us, He thinks we are special?

It is time for us to come out of hiding, and allow the heavenly Father to wrap us up, and bond, so that we can have a great life with Him!!

Blessings,
Dr. j

Church Leaders and Teachers Save the Date!!

Re Group Conference August 17
Trinity Baptist Church, Lake Charles

This is an excellent opportunity I want us to attend. The LBC has assembled an amazing team for a regional meeting. You and I will have the chance to meet David Apple, Allan Taylor and David Odom. These are top shelf guys when it comes to leading groups whether it's Sunday School or Discipleship. Last year John Sandiferd attended with me. "I'm really glad I went, it helped me in ways I had not considered." I would like us all to experience this and get the affirmation as teachers at the start of another year in Bible Study.
