Pastor's Lines

Dear Church Family,
Youth across America gathered at the flag pole this past Wednesday. Our youth group was well represented as they prayed for school members and teachers. Thank you teens for leading us in prayer.

Franklin Graham recently called for Americans to pray for our president. Our president is our president, and we must pray that God would lead him and that he would seek to bring our country into unity. I read online the following comments from Franklin Graham concerning prayer:
Consider the following 5 insights on prayer as you go before the Lord every day:

1. Pray Locally & Globally

In addition to talking with God about your own life and the lives of those around you, don't forget to bring up what's going on nationwide. Franklin Graham, who is holding One-day Evangelistic Prayer Events in North Carolina this October, urges Christians, "The most critical thing you can do is pray, pray, pray. The intercession of God's people is crucial if we are to see a return to the Biblical faith of our fathers, the faith that has guided and sustained our country for so long." As we pray, remember to pray for our president and our governmental leaders.

2. Don't Get Discouraged

Prayer sounds like it should be easy, right? Just talk with God. But if you have questions, it's time to get some answers.

3. Dig Deeper

There may not be a perfect prayer, but Anne Graham Lotz drills down on the best kind of prayer. Join Billy Graham's daughter as she explores the power of prayer in this devotional: The Prayer That Heaven Applauds.

4. Stand United

It's true that God made each of us unique to play a different role in His kingdom, but those differences should still present a unified front for Him.

5. Don't Give Up

Whether you're burdened for this country, a loved one or something else, God hears you. And He loves you.

God bless,
Dr.. j
