Pastor's Lines

Dear Church Family,

I was leaving a meeting in Lake Charles this week. It was a perfect day, with the sun shining and the Christian Music softly playing on the radio. I had just met with a pastor and the was lovely. The day could not be better. I was waiting for the red light to turn green. I was the first one in the line, so I was making sure to be ready to go when the light turned green. EVERYTHING WAS PERFECT. The light turned green, and I gently rolled into the intersection. AND THEN IT HAPPENED.....

A Cadillac Brougham, vanilla cream colored, 2005, license plate 561-__R flew into the intersection from my right. He was probably travelling 50 miles an hour. I SLAMMED on my brakes, and he skidded into the intersection just, and I mean just off of my front bumper. NO ONE was hit. NO ONE was hurt. I honestly do not know how this big Cadillac did not hit me. (well, after a moment of reflection, I do know, wink! Wink!) The Lord protected me from a dangerous crash. I safely pulled on through the intersection, and then noticed my heart racing out of my chest. WHEW! That was close! Thank you, Lord.

I thought on that moment for the rest of the day and I reminded myself that circumstances can change in an instant. We are not guaranteed the next moment and the one we are in, is the most precious moment of all. I don't want to be fatalistic here, but I do suggest that we need to be present with God, present with family, present with friends, and present with the ministry. Because things can change in a minute!

I wonder today, are you putting off a decision to follow Jesus with you whole heart? Are you neglecting time with family for the sake of some far away goal? Are you denying a calling on your life to participate in ministry as a leader or as a more committed learner? Do you need to be baptized?

As we celebrate Baptism AND the Lord's Supper today, ask yourself, "Am I ready for life to change in an instant?"

Blessings, Dr. j

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD PACKING PARTY

We are having an Operation Christmas Child Packing Party on November 6th. We are collecting things to go into the shoe boxes for that party. Each week we will have different items to collect.

This week we need:

Non-Liquid hygiene Items such as:
toothbrushes, bar soap, wash cloths, combs

Items can be placed in designated containers in the front foyer and in the Family Life Center.

Mark your calendar for the next BYAH luncheon which will be held on Tuesday, October 15th. We will start gathering about 10:30am and lunch will be served at 11:00.

Fried chicken will be our meat entrée so bring a side dish or dessert to share.

Todd Burnaman from Dry Creek will be the speaker.

Hope to see you there!!
