Pastor's Lines

Dear Church Family,

I read a story recently about an event that happened in West University (Houston) near Rice University. Seems these 4 girls went to a "Milk and Cookies" dessert business to get, you guessed it, Milk and Cookies. The 14 year old girls were having a simple time with friends. It should be noted that one of the girls wore a Trump shirt that she had received in Washington, DC.

A couple of places back in the cookie line was a lady who was on the city council of West University, Houston. She saw the young girl with the Trump shirt and began shouting very vulgar things at the little girl. The lady made quite a scene, while she was with her husband and young kids, and off she went.

As things tend to do these days, the event went viral. The lady was challenged to apologize, which she did in what appeared to be a half-hearted attempt to get out of trouble. To summarize, things got way out of hand because of a 50 year old lady ranting about her political views.

Sadly, this story plays out over and over in our country today. We have lost our love for one another. As the church, we are (more than ever) challenged to love everybody, regardless of differing opinions and to be an example to others who are finding it hard to love their neighbors. The church in Philadelphia (ancient times) was just such a church, while facing stiff opposition for their beliefs, they just kept on loving! Oh, that we would do the same!

- Shout out to all the volunteers that served in Pumpkin Patch this week. We had a great time, and gave the community a wonderful event. Thanks again.
- We are so pleased that Levi Square has joined us again in worship. These Louisiana College students love the Lord and love our church. We are going to bless them with a love offering today at the close of the service. Let's give generously to show appreciation.
- Next Sunday is another High Attendance Day in Sunday School. Ask yourself, "Who's Your One?", to invite with you to Sunday School. There is always room for "One" more!!

Blessings, Dr. j

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD PACKING PARTY

We are having an Operation Christmas Child Packing Party on November 6th. We are collecting things to go into the shoe boxes for that party. Each week we will have different items to collect.

This week we need: Socks, jewelry, watches, hats, flashlights (with extra batteries) sun glasses, hair clips

Items can be placed in designated containers in the front foyer and in the Family Life Center.

PACKING COLLECTION BOXES

You are invited to help with the packing of boxes in cartons during collection week of November 18-25 in the Family Life Center. When they are boxed up, we will take them to Lake Charles to be put on a tractor trailer and shipped to Dallas for processing before they are shipped overseas. Contact me by email, text or phone if you would like to help. The amount of time you can give is not a problem no matter how much or little.
