

BLESSED
to

serve

When my children and I returned to Jennings 18 years ago, FBC Jennings was a soft place for us to land. My family has served here for generations, so I knew we would fit right in. What I didn't know is the effect the children's department would have on my life. I was offered the opportunity to help get the new idea of a Mother's Day Out program up and running. The program grew beyond my wildest dreams but after about 10 years I knew the Lord was leading me to devote more time and energy into our family business. Leaving MDO was just about the hardest thing I have ever done, but Brian offered me a way to continue my service to the children of our church, through Sunday school. The first Sunday I knew these 4- and 5-year-olds were my people, this is my place! The children are my constant, they ground me, they are completely honest, and their hugs are the best! I pray to be the spark in their lives, that lights a match, that starts a fire for our Lord. One little child at a time. It doesn't matter if this is a child who is here every Sunday or a child I see one time in his/her life, just maybe that seed is planted and one day FBC Jennings and our Savior, Jesus Christ can be their soft place to land.
