Annie Armstrong Easter Offering

STEP INTO THE STORY

OUR GOAL: $6,000

North American Mission Board

MISSIONS COMMITTEE PROJECT

We are gathering 7" pot holders which will be creatively repurposed into eyeglass cases for the upcoming mission trip to Honduras in April. Look for the designated collection box in the foyer to contribute your pot holders to this cause. Thank you!

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD

We will be accepting monthly donations for Operations Christmas Child boxes. All items will be stored and organized to be used for the packing parties in November. Each month we will include a QR code to a monthly Amazon wish list.

Church News

"What a glorious thing it is to be a co-worker with God in winning the world for Christ."

ANNIE ARMSTRONG (1850-1938)

Woman's Missions Union (WMU) Founding Member

Annie Armstrong was born in Baltimore at a time when women were not expected to lead. She served, challenged churches to action, and rallied support for missionaries. Ultimately, Annie was recognized as a national Southern Baptist trailblazer renowned for visionary missions leadership.

CONTRIBUTIONS

- Developed a heart for missions as a young woman while attending missionary meetings with her mother
- Became a Christian at 19 years old
- Started Bay View Mission for Baltimore's poor and addicted
- Served as the first executive of Woman's Missionary Union
- Raised support for missionaries to Italian and Jewish immigrants
- Initiated fund-raising "brick cards" to build churches in Cuba
- Gained support for the first black, female missionaries
- Secured funds to relieve China missionary, Lottie Moon, who had served for 11 years without a furlough
- Advocated for Native Americans and impoverished mountain people
- Traveled across America encouraging missionaries and inspiring churches to pray, give, and act
- Honored in 1934 when The Home Missions Offering was re-named for her to encourage more to follow her sacrificial example

Today, over $2 billion has been given through the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering®. All gifts—100%—support thousands of missionaries in church planting and compassion ministries across the U.S. and Canada.
